

University
College of the Caribbean

Corporate Education

& Management Services Solutions

17 Worthington Avenue, Kingston 5

Tel# 935-0997 / 0977 / 0999 Fax # 960-3562

Email: tdarmand-dunn@ucc.edu.jm

Occupational Health and Safety Training Seminar

Target Group

The target group for this seminar is Occupational Safety and Health Managers, Operations Managers, Maintenance Managers, IR/HR Managers, Occupational Safety and Health Nurses, Safety and Health Committee representatives and all other levels of management and key organizations' personnel interacting with the OSH portfolio

Benefits to Organizations and Individuals

- Raising safety and health consciousness
- Empowerment of workforce
- Reduction of work place accidents
- Reduction of Occupational Diseases
- Reduction of downtime cost owing to workplace accidents
- Reduction of staff cost owing to workplace accidents
- Recognizing and minimizing/eliminating workplace hazards
- Accessing and managing workplace hazards
- Positioning the enterprise to meet the compliance requirements of pending OSH legislation and statutory regulations
- Bringing participants and their companies in line with international best practices
- Gain insight of local practices and provisions for Occupational Safety & Health,
- Reduced trauma to family, friends, coworkers and employers resulting from Occupational accidents

Objective

At the end of this training seminar, participants will:

- Gain knowledge and develop the requisite skills and competencies necessary for handling workplace situations relating to health, safety and the environment
- Be able to assess an organization's compliance with local and international standards where health, safety and the environment are concerned
- Through observance of Occupational Safety and Health Legislations create positive collaboration and meaningful interaction between workers and employers and maintain a safer work environment and workplace
- Understand how to prevent work related injuries associated with their occupation
- Learn the importance of avoidance of statutory fines and litigation costs
- Know the cost benefits that will be realized in a safe working environment

Seminar Content:

- OSH Programs and Safety Policy
- Legal Responsibility for Safety
- Occupational Safety and Health Act
- Hazardous Substances
- Occupational Accidents
- Fire Protection Strategy
- Occupational Diseases
- Ergonomics
- Personal Protective Equipment
- Disaster Management
- Risk Management